How to Convince a Russian Girl to Date You

by Lipi B. | October 20, 2014

Russian Women

People think that dating a Russian woman is not that difficult, however it's not that easy too. You have to pay attention to her. You have to keep records of minor details. She will definitely show concern if she is interested in you. There are certain steps to convince a Russian girl to date you:

First Step

In Russian culture, it is considered to be nice if the man approaches the woman first. A man should always ask the woman for the dating. Man should make plans to spend the weekend together. If the man wants to ask a woman for the marriage he should make first step by himself.

Second Step

Russian Women like to be complimented. They get impressed a lot when someone compliments them. It is good if you compliment her and express that she is beautiful and that she has pretty eyes. So try to make her blush. If you get success in complimenting her then you are surely in her list of people she loves.

Third Step

Try to impress the Russian woman through gestures. Offer her gifts and bring her some beautiful flowers and chocolates. Make her think that you really like her and try to learn few lines in Russian Language to impress her. She will feel that you are paying attention and you are trying to adopt her culture.

Fourth Step

Never ever forget her and if you are busy and forget to call her then inform her about your busy schedule. Otherwise, it will be considered that you are no more interested and you are ignoring her. Russian women need attention, they don't like if they get the feeling of being ignored. Try to make her a call and just inform her that you are really busy today. You must call her at night and it will boost her spirit and affection for you.

Fifth Step

Try to impress the Russian woman's family. You will be considered a decent man if you get success in impressing her parents. Try to win their hearts. If you meet them try to get some gifts for them. Try to convince them that you are perfect for their daughter.
