If you have done some research on European dating you should know the reasons why single Russian women are so popular with European men. Several beautiful girls on the European dating sites have claimed the hearts and minds of Western men. Going through this post will help you determine whether European dating is for you or not. Here are 5 important reasons to date Russian girls.

1. They are loyal to their partners

Russian girls are probably the most faithful of all other ladies. When they decide that they want to have a family and settle down with a man, it would take a serious crisis to make them change their minds. Russian women will do anything in their power to make their man happy and defend their relationship. This is one of the greatest reasons to go out with a European girl.

2. They have caring personalities

If settling down and starting a family is what you want, but you have not met the suitable girl yet, dating single Russian women could be just the thing for you. These girls will make fantastic wives and mothers because they respect traditional values. They're known for being kind and loving parents. They are also very protective of their children and put their families before anything else. While Western women are becoming more and more focused on their careers, Russian ladies enjoy their roles as wives and mothers.

3. They take care of the way they look

If you have not noticed yet, Russian women are very attractive. Even if they do not have the funds to purchase the priciest clothing or expensive designer jewellery – they know how to use what they have. Russian girls are very elegant and feminine and can often look like they just stepped off a runway. They are proud of their appearances and the way they look. They like dressing up and looking sophisticated.

4. They are smart and intelligent

If you're into smart women, single Russian women could be just right for you. A lot of them speak more than one language and they're intrigued by current world affairs. Recent news and things happening in the world are what they are interested in. Russian ladies also like talking about serious matters and learning more about different subjects. This is one of the main factors why an international romance may be a fantastic experience.

5. They respect their partners

European women are quite respectful of their boyfriends. They're raised to regard the man as the head of the household and as such they deserve respect. Although European ladies demand respect too, they freely give it to their boyfriends. If you believe a couple have to respect one another and keep impressing each other once the first flames are gone, a single Russian woman is great for you.
